“Alex Price’s domain expertise on skip-tracing is exceptional. In the independent car industry, the ability for consumers to pay their notes is the key to a dealers’ success and longevity. That is why AutoStar has invited Alex to be a speaker at our annual users’ conference on the subject of skip-tracing. Many of our dealers have benefitted from Alex’s words of wisdom and advise.

I am honored to have known Alex for many years, and I applaud his willingness to help others become better hunters!”
